Small Business

Are you a member of the military community (Active Duty, Veteran, National Guard or Reserves) or a military spouse? And are you thinking about starting or have you recently started a small business?

This one day intensive workshop is designed to introduce prospective entrepreneurs to the fundamentals of small business start-up and to help you determine the feasibility of your business idea. We will focus on your business concept, industry and market analysis, small business economics and financial forecasting. This class will give you the framework for a feasible business plan and introduce you to the resources to help you start and grow your business.

This workshop will be offered on Tuesday, November 14th from 9am-5pm & is free of charge to members of the military community or military spouses.

Last Class in 2017!
