

Dr. Frank W. Uhlmann, Korean War DC Veteran

When we first met Dr. Frank Uhlmann, his hair was falling fast,
As he sat around the Advisory Board Meetings, telling stories of the past.
Of a war that he had fought in and the deeds that he had done,
With the guys of the Korean War conflict; they were heroes, every one.

And though sometimes, to others, his tales became a joke,
All the Advisory Board members listened, for we all knew the place of where he spoke.
But we'll hear his tales no longer for Comrade Uhlmann has passed away,
And the world's a little poorer, for a soldier will be buried today.

While serving as a Korean War Army soldier, who offered up his all,
He was paid off with some medals and a VA pension that was small.
There should be a simple headline in the paper that would say,
Our City is in mourning, for a soldier will be buried today.

Yes, Comrade Uhlmann was a Korean War Army soldier and his ranks are growing thin,
The story in this morning's paper, reminds us that we may need his like again.
For when countries are in conflict, then we realize the soldier's part;
Is to clean up all the troubles that the politicians start.
They would not be able to enjoy their Freedom, if Mr. Uhlmann hadn't helped in leading the way;
Yet they won't note his passing, because a soldier will be buried today.

It wasn't a bullet, a plane crash or a bomb.
Well he just finally, could not hold on.
He fought "life" like a military campaign.
But the time came to surrender, to end all of his earthly pain.

He will be mourned by many, to include his children, Wendy, Erica and David, and you know that I am right,
Rest well Defender Uhlmann; you gave it your all, during your last fight.
Dr. Frank W. Uhlmann was always a gentleman, uplifting us all, is what he did each and everyday,
Remember, Our Country is in mourning, for a soldier will be buried today.
