Dear American Hero,

Very shortly, our country will observe that most American of holidays, Thanksgiving, when families and friends gather to express gratitude for our many blessings as U.S. citizens.

We are all especially thankful for the military service of men and women like you, and the enormous personal sacrifices you and your family have made to defend our freedom.

The Coalition to Salute America's Heroes, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to serving severely wounded veterans of the War on Terror.

The Coalition to Salute America's Heroes wants to tangibly express our gratitude to you this Thanksgiving by providing a $60.00 gift card. We hope you'll use it to enjoy a special meal with those closest to you.

The gift card is made possible by contributions from Coalition supporters across the nation that are sincerely grateful for your service and truly value the liberties you fought to protect.

To be considered for a gift card, please contact Jil Hinds at the Coalition to Salute America's Heroes at jhinds@saluteheroes.org for more information, NLT 1 November 2013. Please include your contact information, a brief description of your family (e.g., wife/husband and number of dependents).

As always, thank-you for your service.

Sincerely,

Jil Hinds
Director of Veteran Services
